

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF MENDOCINO

*Press Release
(For immediate release: December 29, 2011)*

2012 Judicial Assignments
Announced by the Superior Court of California, County of Mendocino

Several Superior Court judges will be rotating their judicial assignments beginning January 3, announced Presiding Judge Richard J. Henderson.

Judges Ann C. Moorman and John A. Behnke will take up criminal trial matters in Departments A and B, respectively. Judge Cindee F. Mayfield will move to Department E where she will be responsible for all general civil and probate matters. Judge David E. Nelson will continue to handle all juvenile matters in Department F. Judge Henderson will preside over family law matters in Department C. Judge Clayton L. Brennan will continue to manage the Fort Bragg Branch Court general calendar. All assignments will be for a period of two years.

There are currently two vacancies on the local court (Departments G and H) due to the retirements of Judges Ron Brown and Jonathan Lehan. Some of the announced assignments may be changed when the vacancies are filled by Governor Brown.
