

How Do I Ask the Court to Renew My Restraining Order?

---

What does “renew” mean?

- It is the way the judge can make your current restraining order last longer than the current expiration (end) date.
- If the judge “renews” your Civil Harassment Restraining Order After Hearing (form CH-130), it will have a new expiration (end) date.

When do I ask for the renewal?

Anytime within the three months before the date your current order expires. See your Civil Harassment Restraining Order After Hearing for your current expiration date.

Follow these steps:

- Fill out all of form CH-700 (Request to Renew Restraining Order) and attach a copy of your current Civil Harassment Restraining Order After Hearing (form CH-130)
- Make at least two (2) copies.
- Fill out items ① and ② on both form CH-710 (Notice of Hearing to Renew Restraining Order) and form CH-730 (Order Renewing Civil Harassment Restraining Order).
- File your paperwork with the Court’s Clerk’s Office. The clerk will set your matter for an “ex parte” hearing. If the judge signs form CH-710, the court will give you a new hearing date.
- After your ex parte hearing, the clerk will make up three (3) file-stamped copies for you.
- Have a copy of all court papers served personally on the person to be restrained.
- Ask the person who serves the papers to complete form CH-200 (Proof of Personal Service) and to give it to you. Make two (2) copies and bring them all to the court to be filed prior to the hearing.
- Go to the hearing. At the hearing, the judge will decide whether or not to renew the restraining order.
- If the judge renews the restraining order:
  - o The judge will sign form CH-730 and the clerk will prepare three (3) copies for you.
  - o You must serve form CH-730 on the restrained party, either by mail or in person:
    - You may serve CH-730 by mail, ONLY if:
      - The restrained person was at the hearing or
      - The restrained person was not at the hearing but the renewed orders are identical to the original orders, excluding the expiration date.
      - Ask the server to complete form CH-260 (Proof of Service of Order After Hearing by Mail) and file form CH-260 with the court.
    - You must serve CH-730 in person if:
      - The restrained person was not at the hearing and the renewed orders are different from the original orders, excluding the expiration date.
      - Ask the server to complete form CH-200 (Proof of Service of Order After Hearing by Mail) and file form CH-200 with the court.
  - o The clerk will send the restraining order to CLETS for you. CLETS is a statewide computer system that lets police know about the order.

Bring a copy of all of your papers to the court hearing.
